

AUTHOR	Polina G. Loginova — PhD (Philology), Senior Lecturer at the Chair of International Communication, School of World Politics, Lomonosov Moscow State University (e-mail: polina-loginova@inbox.ru).
TITLE	THE PHENOMENON OF EMMANUEL MACRON Book review of ‘Qu’est-ce que le macronisme?’ edited by E. Fottorino
SUMMARY	The book under review is a collection of essays ‘Qu’est-ce que le macronisme?’ (‘What is Macronism?’), published by ‘Philippe Rey’ in 2018. The reviewer thoroughly considers the structure and the contents of the book. Each chapter represents an essay, an interview or an article by a prominent scholar, a politician or a journalist who present their views on the presidency of E. Macron and prospects for the development of France. The reviewer notes that the general tenor of the book is positive: all authors emphasize high intelligence and ambitions of the French leader, which facilitated greatly his career development from a little-known politician to the head of the state. The reviewer concludes that this popular science edition offers a sufficiently accurate political portrait of E. Macron, provides interesting biographical details and can be recommended for IR scholars, political scientists, journalists, and linguists since it is written in an impressive and elegant French language. The book under review can also prove useful in studying the role of an individual in history.
KEYWORDS	Emmanuel Macron, Macronism, France, the Fifth Republic, political psychology, political mentalities, political values.